UAE.

Subject: Participation and setting of two Guinness Book of World Records.

Dear respected parents,

Dubai Police and HealthHub Al Futtain have initiated and is attempting to create two World Records this November, 2019. The two World Record titles will be judged and awarded by the Guinness Book of World Records at Dubai Police Academy on 5th December 2019 at 10.00 AM.

The two Guinness Book of World Records that will be attempted are as follows:

1. 5000 people simultaneously carrying the UAE national flag.
2. Maximum number of nationalities carrying the longest national flag of United Arab Emirates.

In order to make this event successful, your child's school has shown interest in participating along with Dubai Police and HealthHub Al Futtain in creating this world record. The event will be graced by senior dignitaries and covered by several media companies.

Rules to be followed for participation:

1. There has to be minimum 2 group captain (teacher) per group of 50 children to manage their movement, queries and needs when participating in the event.
2. Group of less than 50 students will not be allowed to participate from each school.
3. All participating children and group captains (teacher) MUST register online to confirm their participation for the event at www.uaeguinnessawards.com.
4. All registrations must be completed by 5th December 2019. If you need assistance for online registration, please get in touch with Mr. Shiju, 054 4989899.
5. All participating children must wear the school uniform.
6. Only children in grade 6 and above are allowed to participate in the event.
7. All children must arrive at Meydan grounds before 8.00 AM with group captains (teacher).
8. Post event completion, all children must be escorted back to school by the group captains (teacher).
9. First Aid will be provided in case of emergency on the ground.

For all the efforts taken by the schools, teachers and children to participate in creating this historical World Record the following will be awarded:

1. The school that participates with the Highest Registration for the event will be awarded with a Special Trophy by senior dignitaries from Dubai Police and HealthHub Al Futtain.
2. All confirmed participants and group captains will be awarded with Participation certificates from Dubai Police for helping create this WORLD RECORDS.
3. All children will be provided with refreshment boxes that include beverages and food.

Thanks & Best Regards
Dubai Police
